FALL HEALTHCARE INNOVATION SHOWCASE & SHARK TANK

December 8, 2014
3:30pm – 7:30pm
Johns Hopkins School of Medicine
Armstrong Building

Featuring mid-year updates on these CBID Healthcare Innovation Projects:

- Monitoring Uterine Contractions
- Fixing Failures From Flawed Fistula Flow
- Early Detection of Acute Kidney Injury
- Improving Symptom Management for Parkinson’s Disease
- Improving Outcomes of Heart Failure Patients – Starting in the Hospital
- Improving Lower-Limb Prosthetic Suspension
- Ischemic Heart Disease Diagnostic for Low-Resource Settings
- Reducing the Incidence of Cerebrospinal Fluid Leaks During Spinal Revision Surgeries
- Laparoscopic Fascial Stitching
- Treatment and Management of Tracheal Stenosis
- A Novel Stem Cell Delivery Device
- Efficient Regulation of Blood Oxygen Levels in Premature Infants
- TenoSlice: A Novel Tool to Harvest Tendons
- Method to Reduce the Prevalence of Undiagnosed Obstructive Lung Diseases in Low-Resource Settings
- Contraceptive Implant Trainer For Developing Nations
- Screening for Pre-Term Labor

With generous support from: